

Shadsworth Infant School Newsletter

Friday 17th January 2025

Message from Mrs Crompton

It was World Religion Day this week in school. Two classrooms were used for Christianity, 2 classrooms for Islam and 2 classrooms for Hinduism. The children learnt lots about the three different faiths, did some Bollywood dancing and tasted some Indian food, a real cultural experience and I know lots of parents have enjoyed celebrating the photographs on our Facebook page. The Rainbow room will now have access to our Facebook so that will improve the sharing of events and learning for those children.

Our Film Night and Disco are being organised by our Parents, Teacher, Friends of Shadsworth Infant group – letters will be coming home. The funds raised from these events will help to subsidise trips and keep our Minibuses running so we don't need the expense of hiring coaches.

Research shows putting the subtitles on our television has proven to support our children learning to read, please look at the link below for further details,

In the Early Years

Let's have a look at this week's poster! 13th - 19th January 2025

Let's look at this week's story

Prime Minister, Sir Keir Starmer, has said that building new homes is a 'top priority'.

Think about: What is the job of the Prime Minister? What do you think he means when he says building new homes is a 'top priority'?

Discuss that a prime minister helps to make decisions and rules for our country. To say that building new homes is a 'top priority' means that it is very important. It is hoped that 370,000 new homes will be built every year in England.

Think about: Have you seen any new homes being built near where you live? Has anyone ever moved into a brand-new home? How do you think new homes are different from older homes? Do you think we need to build lots more homes? Why?

Democracy

When new homes are built, we need to decide where and how many. We can all have a say about where we think homes should or should not be built.

Protected Characteristics

People of all ages can live in a newly built area. We should think about what people of all ages need when planning what to build.

UN Rights of the Child

We all have the right to a safe place to live to help us grow and thrive. The government should help families and children who might be struggling to access housing.
