

LEADING PARENT PARTNERSHIP AWARD

Autumn 1 Newsletter

October 2018

As many of you will already be aware we have embarked on a national award called Leading Parent Partnership Award (LPPA) which we hope to achieve later on this year. Here is an update of our progress towards the award.

Some of the things we have achieved so far include...

- Setting up a school Facebook page
- Finding out which workshops and courses parents would find useful
- Organising parent workshops in partnership with Blackburn with Darwen Family Learning
- Holding events that parents can attend alongside their child e.g. the Macmillan coffee afternoon

You said...

"My child doesn't receive much homework which is a shame as she enjoys doing it."

"The children could get homework for the week-

We did...

In addition to weekly spellings and daily reading, we have created new homework grids where the children can choose different activities to complete. Homework that is brought in is celebrated, shared with the class and then displayed.

Suggestion Box

We now have a suggestions box in the entrance of school. If you have any ideas, thoughts or comments to make please feel free to fill out a suggestion slip.

What a fantastic turnout we had at our Macmillan coffee event!
